In regard to the Apportionment till, intreduced by the majority, there is but one opinion—that it must be opposed by such methods as the minurity may now opposed, if needs be to the hister cut. Our friends are ready and axious to do in this matter what the constitution domands; but, intill overpowered by numbers, they will not yield to the outrapeous tripustic of what the Black Democracy ask. They are willing to submit to such partizan advantages as the enemy may claim within limits that parties, as political morality now runs, can defend; but this bill is too gross. They will light it to the last.

It is thought that it is not intended that the bill shall pass; though there is no doubt that, if passed, the Border Ruffans would gladly necept it. They have made it as objectionable as possible, with the hope that Republican opposition will defeat it, and that the old Apportionment will not be disturbed. The laster is exceedingly unjust to the North cad of the State; but it does not smell as rank as that monatoracity that Border Ruffanism has just hatched. We shall see what will be done.

DEPONITS RECEIVED, AND LIBERAL new city becoming greater than he produces on, by the amount of power accumulated on the continent, for concentration from point to point of its progress. But we there are points from one resting place to another, possessing greatly superior advantages for commerce over all others, and near enough the center line of industrial power to appropriate the dommerce which it offers, to these points we much look for our future great elites. To become chief of these, there must be united in them the best facilities for transport, by water and by land. It is too plain, to need proof, that these positions are occupied by Cleveland, Toleids and Oliciago.

But we have a foreign commerce beyond the continent of North America, by means of the Atlantic Ocean, bearing the proportion, we will allow, of one to twenty of the domestic commerce within the continent. This proportion will seem small, to persons who have not directed particular attention to the "subject. It is, nevertheless, within the truth. The proof of this is difficult, only because we cannot get the figures that represent the numberless exchanges of equivalents among each other, it such a community as cure.

He we suppose ten of the twenty-ains millions of our North American community to seri on an average, $1.25 per day, $12 days in the year, it will make an aggregate of nearty firsty thousand millions of coliars. If we divide the year, it will make an aggregate of nearty firsty thousand tabor, the proportion of tabor would be but $1.25 per day, for the millions of the twenty-ains millions of the proportion of tabor would be but $1.25 per day for two parts. David C. Broderick has been elected United States Senator for the long serm in place of John B. Weller, and Wm. M. Gwin for the short term. Both were memipated in cancerdary. Broderight securing his own nomination and election first. It is generally supposed that the election of Gwin is the result of a bargain disgraceful in its nature, the terms of which were dictated by Mr. Broderick, who had to his own hands a sufficient number of voices to secure the election of whomsoever he pleased. The bargain is said to be that Mr. Gwin yields all claim to any influence in the federal appointments. Mr. Gwin Asa published a letter, in which he states that he shall too Interfere in the dependence of the Land Commission, in the continuation of the Land Commission, in the deplaces of the Land Commission, in the Helvads, which embraces the ground on which Sacramento City stands.

Then he crouched down in order to obtain a similar view of Eckel's face as when he looked up at the man from the steps on the night of the murder. He was satisfied that there stood before him the very individual who, in his oliri discress had graffly demanded when, in his oliri discress that there stood before him the very individual who, in his oliri discress, but graffly demanded when, in his oliri discress, but struggled internally to hitch his emotion, but his hands and knees shook during the ordeal. It were difficult to say which seemed to suffer the greater—the racognized or the recognized.

The swill discovery was made. We say aw ful, for so it appeared to everybody. The witnesses of the scene lowly retired, and regained the lower room, where all was axxiety to obtain news of the read newly retired, and regained the lower room, where all was axxiety to obtain news of the round. Conversation became general, and we overheard one of the jurous state that, whereas he before deubted the testimony of Mr. Farrell, he had changed his opinion writery.

Had Mr. Farrell walked up to Rekel, and and forthwith, "that is the man," there might have been room to doubt his testimony; but he evidently felt as he subsequently stated, the swill responsibility he labored under in the lateries. His countrainne betrayed the struggle of the swill second of the law he action of there when not a dright without the indisposition to declare. Thou art the man, "He are actioned there when not a dright without the indisposition to declare. Thou art the man, "He are actioned there when not a dright without the indisposition to declare.
